~ It's Finally Here! ~

The weekend you've been waiting for has arrived!

Whether you start on the north end of the A1A Scenic & Historic Coastal Byway with our friends at the South Ponte Vedra Civic Association or on the south end of the sale along the Halifax Heritage Byway, at the Ponce Inlet Community Center, you're guaranteed to find great bargains tomorrow.

New home construction has spurred a desire among retirees to downsize and several of our sellers are offering excellent pricing on home decor, wall art, exercise equipment and furnishings, while others offer up library stocking literature at both their home locations and at community sites.

The outdoor enthusiast will find great deals on fishing and other outdoor recreational equipment and the handyman in your life will find power tools and more to stay busy!

Don't miss the artisans on display with original works, handmade crafts and jewelry, and vintage goods.

Be sure to stop for breakfast or lunch along the byways where our locally owned businesses are ready to welcome you! With three pages of places to stop and shop, download the map and plan your adventure!

Major community sites will host multiple sellers while homes and businesses in between will feature plenty to see.

In town for the sale? Why not stay and explore the Nation's Oldest City.
